AMICI'S

EAST COAST PIZZERIA

A FEW WORDS ABOUT AMICI'S PIZZA: We bake our pizzas in brick ovens, the way tradition-minded Italians have been baking pizzas for hundreds of years. Because our pies are baked directly on the super-hot brick floor, the crust comes out crisp and darker than the typical American pizza—often a bit black. If you are a crust lover, you'll find our crust distinctively delicious. If a darker crust is not to your liking, please specify "light crust," although the result may be undercooked for some tastes.

SPINACH SALAD

AMICI'S™ @WORK FOR YOUR BUSINESS

You don't have to work in Manhattan to impress your colleagues with authentic East Coast-style pizza, full flavored pastas, and the freshest gourmet salads. With the Amici's @ Work™ corporate delivery program, you can bring a genuine East Coast feast to your Bay Area corporate gathering—quickly and completely hassle free.

Amici's is about quality, convenience, and enjoying the Northeast's distinctive Italian fare. In the mid-1980's, two of the Bay Area's East Coast transplants—Mike from upstate New York, and Peter, from Boston—decided to do something about their mutual longing for a “slice” of back home. So, they set out on a quest to learn the secrets that made pies from the famous pizzerias in New York, Connecticut, and Boston so distinctively delicious.

They soon discovered that their favorite pizzerias had something in common: a traditional, Italian brick oven. The 700° temperatures of the age-old stone hearths made thin crusts uniquely crispy, puffy, and slightly chewy. And when a pie's ingredients were of the highest quality and freshness, the hot bricks melded the flavors together just right, for a taste that was nothing short of perfection.

Mike and Peter returned inspired, and were excited to share what they had learned with their fellow East Coast transplants. In 1987, they opened the first Amici's East Coast Pizzeria in San Mateo, and, to their delight, it became an instant success—not only with transplants, but with EVERYONE. With a focus on authenticity, friendly service, and customer satisfaction, Amici's has grown to become one of the Bay Area's leading providers of high-quality, freshly made food for businesses of all sizes.

Whether your group is 5 or 500 people, call your neighborhood Amici's for prompt, professional delivery of great, freshly made food. Also, ask our staff about setting up a House Account for convenient monthly billing.
